Concert At Memorial United Methodist Church March 10

Memorial United Methodist Church will have a Church Fellowship - Family Night covered dish supper Saturday, March 10 at 6 p.m.

Following supper there will be a concert at 7:30 p.m. by the NEW FERRUM SINGERS. The public is invited.

The NEW FERRUM SINGERS will also lead the music and provide special anthems at the Sunday worship service at 11 a.m.

The NEW FERRUM SINGERS is a 10-member musical ensemble from Ferrum College which sings and plays handbells. The ensemble travels regularly throughout the state performing in churches, schools, and for many functions, representing Ferrum College.

The musical program to be presented will be both inspirational and entertaining, featuring selections from sacred choral literature, handbell music, and easy-listening contemporary works. The ensemble from Ferrum College is under the direction of Mr. James McConnell, associate professor of music at the college.

Uniqueness of musical sound created by a careful choral blend is characteristic of the NEW FERRUM SINGERS. Many of the musical compositions to be presented have been arranged by director McConnell especially for this ensemble. Recently composed works for handbells display the beauty of the bells coupled with skillful use of the various techniques for playing them, creating an exciting experience both for the player and the listener.

Carefully blended voices, skillfully played bells, and the occasional combining of voices and bells produce a thrilling as well as inspirational program of music to be remembered.

Members of the NEW FERRUM SINGERS include Susan Davis from Richmond, Donald Dollins from Waynesboro, Ann Duckworth and Ernest Harper both from Lynchburg, Chuck Harrell from Suffolk, Carolyn Hopkins from Norfolk, Cindy Lamm from Clifford, Mark Richardson from Newport News, Lisa Smith from Fairfax, and Chipper Tribby from Hamilton.
